7. Mr. Ameer Haider Khan Hoti, Chief Minister, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa informed the House that Government was taking measures to control illegal supply of Cattle to Afghanistan. In this regard the Federal Government had asked to minimize export quota of Cattle for Afghanistan as well as to reduce number of permits for the transportation of Cattle heads to tribal area, which would help control prices of mutton and beef in the Province. He further informed regarding imposition of loading and unloading tax in district Bannu that under the Local Government Ordinance, 2001 Tehsil Municipal Officer had been empowered to levy taxes and the same tax had also been imposed in Kohat and Lakki Marwat Districts while it would be extended to other districts of the Province, so that the District Government should generate revenues from their own sources to fulfill their requirements.

8. The sitting was adjourned till Friday, 25th March, 2011 at 10:00 AM.
