(2) Application for renewal of a registration certificate shall be made in the manner as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER-II

COMPLIANCE WITH OTHER RELEVANT LAWS

7. Compliance.---(1) A registration certificate shall not be granted for the establishment and operation of the brick kiln which is not in compliance with the relevant environmental protection, labour and other applicable laws.

(2) A person shall not establish or operate a brick kiln without adopting the relevant environmentally friendly technologies and practices:

Provided that a person who is already operating a brick kiln without adopting the relevant environmentally friendly technologies and practices shall ensure the adoption of such technologies and practices within six months of the commencement of this Act.

(3) If any brick kiln has been established or is being operated in contravention of subsection (1) and (2), the Registering Authority or Authorized Officer, as the case may be, shall proceed as per sections 10 and 11 of this Act.

8. Safe distance.---(1) No registration certificate shall be granted for establishing and operating brick kiln without maintaining a safe distance as may be prescribed, from the location like, school, hospital, transmission line, forest, human dwelling, or any other strategic location.

(2) If any person has established or intends to establish or is operating a brick kiln without maintaining a safe distance or the brick kiln was found causing hazard, the Registering Authority or Authorized Officer, as the case may be, may pass an order directing such person to shift such brick kiln to a safe distance from such location or may seal the premises.

9. Responsibilities of the licensee.---(1) The licensee shall comply with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the licensee shall have such other responsibilities as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER-III INSPECTIONS AND PUNISHMENTS

10. Inspections.---(1) The Registering Authority or Authorized Officer as the case may be, may inspect any brick kiln for compliance with the provisions of this Act and rules as and when required, in the manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of sub-section (1), for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Registering Authority or Authorized Officer may-

- (a) enter and inspect any brick kiln;
- (b) enter or search the premises and take action as may be necessary;
- (c) by order in writing, require any person to furnish such information in his possession relating to the installation or operation of the brick kiln, as may be specified in the order;
- (d) seize or order the production of any document, book, register or record in the possession of the licensee or any person having control or employed in connection with any brick kiln, if he has reason to believe that contravention of the provisions of this Act or rules made thereunder has been or is being or is about to be committed; and

- (e) stop and inspect any vehicle or cart in which bricks are being carried for sale, supply or storage or any other purpose.

(3) Any person who obstructs the Registering Authority or the Authorized Officer, as the case may be, while conducting duties under this Act shall be punished under section 186 of Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 (Act No. XLV of 1860).

11. Fine and cancellation of registration certificate.---(1) If, during inspection, a licensee is found violating the provisions of this Act and the rules, the Registering Authority or the Authorized Officer as the case may be, may impose a fine on him which may extend to two hundred thousand rupees.

(2) If the licensee continues in violation of the provision of this Act and the rules despite imposition of fine under sub-section (1), the Registering Authority or Authorized Officer, as the case may be, shall direct the licensee to stop operation of brick kiln and shall proceed to cancel the registration of the licensee after giving him an opportunity of hearing. Besides cancellation of registration the licensee shall also be liable to be proceeded against under section 12 of this Act.

12. Punishment for persistent violation of this Act and rules.---(1) If the licensee despite imposition of fine under section 11 of this Act, still persists in violation of this Act and rules, he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months and fine which shall not be less than two hundred thousand rupees and which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees.

(2) For the purpose of prosecution of licensee under this section and section 13 of this Act, the Registering Authority or Authorized Officer, as the case may be, shall file complaint in the Court under section 16 of this Act.

13. Punishment for operating brick kiln without a registration certificate.---(1) Any person involved in the operation of a brick kiln without a registration certificate, the Registering Authority or Authorized Officer, as the case may be, may pass an order directing such person to stop operation of such brick kiln and get the same registered under the provision of this Act.

(2) If the person fails to register the brick kiln or in case of a licensee, whose registration has expired and fails to renew his registration, continues to operate the said brick kiln without registration, he shall be liable to punishment with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with a fine which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees and may extend to two hundred thousand rupees or with both.

CHAPTER-IV APPEALS

14. Appeals.---(1) Any person or licensee aggrieved by an order passed by the Registering Authority or Authorized Officer, as the case may be, may prefer an appeal to the Appellate Authority within thirty (30) days from the date of the order.

(2) The Appellate Authority may pass an order within two months after giving an opportunity of being heard to the person.

(3) The order of the Appellate Authority on such appeal shall be final.
